

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 1923-54.

Polar Fisheries Company.
Snug Harbor, Chisik Island.

December 20, 1922.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Polar Fisheries Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the canning of salmon and clams for commercial purposes at Snug Harbor, Chisik Island, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate four (4) salmon traps in all, on the eastern shore of Cook Inlet between Anchor Point and East Foreland; and two beach seines and three hundred fathoms of gill nets, but beach seines and gill nets are not to be used in Kamishak Bay. The traps driven shall be reported to the Bureau accompanied by a map or chart on which the sites are indicated, if such has not already been filed. The company may fish for clams between Harriet Point and Tuxedni Harbor.

2. That the pack shall not exceed fifteen thousand (15,000) cases of salmon and twenty-five thousand (25,000) cases of clams, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.

3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purpose.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
